SANFORD'S AND PARKER'S combined minstrel troupes are still delighting crowds at Grover's theater, with entertainments of a rich, rare and racy order. Many new acts, never before performed in Washington, are nightly introduced, and each act elicits much applause.

REMOVAL OF CONVALESCENTS.—The hospital steamer Connecticut will leave the 6th street wharf to-day for Philadelphia with 800 convalescents from the hospitals of this city-These convaiescents are improving rapidly. and many of them will be able to return to the field within a short time.

Last night, Dr. T. B. Hood, the surgeon in charge of this steamer, was presented with a handsome sword and belt by Dr. Whisler, on behalf of the medical officers of the Connecticut, as a slight token of their appreciation of him as an officer and gentleman. After the presentation ceremonies were over the party sat down to a fine collation provided by Dr. Hood, and several hours were spent in social intercourse. There were quite a number of ladies and gentlemen present at the presentation, among whom was Dr. Waters, of the Medical Director's Office.

NOT AN EXPERT -Last night, a gentleman named Timothy McCormick went to the oyster saloon of A. Clements, Twelfth, between C and D streets, and had a supper of oysters. In payment he offered two one-dollar bills of the Frankin Bank of Baltimore, the appearance of which excited the bar-tender's suspicion that the money was bogus. City officer Williamson arrested Mr. McCormick, and delivered him to the Metropolitan Police. This morning he had a hearing before Justice Clayton, and the notes proving to be genuine, were returned to Mr. McCormick, and the case was

THE RESULT .- The robbing of F. C. Ryan, referred to in the Star last evening, was traced up by the officers. The robbery was perpetrated at No. 335 12th street, kept by a woman named Mina Reynolds, where Ryan was the night before last with Philip Gillen. Ryan laid down on a sofa and slept. Gillen sat down on a chair in front of him and was seen to put his hand in Ryan's breast pocket and take something out. Gillen was arrested at the Metropolitan Hotel by officer Sullivan, and was taken before Justice Clayton, who held him to bail for court.

SOLDIER SHOT .- Yesterday morning, as a train containing a number of soldiers under guard, was crossing 11th street, at Maryland avenue, on the way over the river, three soldiers jumped off and ran. They were immediately called to halt when one of them turned back, but several shots were fired at the two Who refused to balt, and unfortunately the one returning was struck in the body with three balls killing him instantly. His name has not been ascertained.

MILITARY ORGANIZATION TO BE KEPT UP .-By direction of General M. C. Meigs, Quartermaster General, the military organization of the Quartermaster's Department employees is to be kept up and they are to be drilled regu-larly, in order to be prepared for any emergency. General Rucker, commanding the Brigade, has ordered that each officer of the Depot, have the employees drilled at least half an hour

REPREHENSIBLE .- Between 12 and 2 o'clock on Monday night, some soldiers on the east side of the canal, thought to belong to the Veteran Reserve Corps, in camp on Carroll Hill, amused themselves by firing towards the houses on the Island, in the vicinity of Maryland avenue bridge, and several balls passed through the houses, but fortunately no one was injured.

PIC NICS TO-MORROW.-The exhibition of freworks and the pic-nic which was to have taken place at Beckert's Garden on the 14th instant, and was postponed, will certainly take place to-morrow, commencing at 3 o'clock. The Awkward Club will also give a pic-nic to-morrow at Washington Park. This pic-nic was postponed from the 12th inst., on account of the proximity of the rebels.

BURGLARY .- Last night, the warehouse of the Washington Express Co., corner New Jersey avenue and D street, was entered by burglars, who effected an entrance by boring around the door knobs with a brace and bit, and knocked the lock off inside, the desks and drawers were opened in the same way. It has not been ascertained what was taken away.

GRAND LARGENY .- This morning, officer Donn, of the Fourth Ward, arrested Morris Jay, a soldier, for the larceny of money amounting to eight or nine dollars from Kate Orr, colored. Jay was taken before Justice Giberson, and when he was searched the money was found. Justice Giberson sent him to jail for
